MAI is an independent individual advocacy organisation for people with disability.

MAI promotes a positive vision for their lives and advocates on their behalf to protect and defend them against people and systems that treat them unjustly.

MAI'S OBJECTS

- 1 To speak, write and act for people with disability in a way that advocates against unfair and unjust things happening in their lives.
- 2 To support advocacy development efforts that educate community about the vulnerability of people with disability and the need for independent advocacy.
- 3 To enhance the positive image of people with disability in the community.
- 4 To network with individuals and organisations who support advocacy against unfair and unjust things happening in the lives of people with disability.
- 5 To be an effective, efficient and accountable organisation that works and reflects on social advocacy principles and practices.
